

To My BEST FRIEND
(and best counselor)

HENRY

guess who?

[23-1-12-12-25]

My dear Henry,

Six weeks away from you will, I'm sure, be a difficult time, but I'm also sure that we will both grow and learn during this time. I'm thankful that you are seeking the Lord's will for your life and anticipating that He will reveal His plan for you. I'm also anticipating this, because I know if we seek, we will find. I know the Lord is pleased that you want His will to be done. I respect that 'seeking' in you. I'm confident that He will use you greatly this year. I know the Lord will supply all your needs.

Pray for me, that I will have patience this summer while I wait for you to come back. Also, pray that I won't be lonely. I'm not going to just sit around at home, cause that will make it worse; I'm going to try to keep myself busy. Carolyn + I will probably play a lot of tennis and I'll go swimming + play volleyball. I'm sure that nothing will compare with the joy of being with you - I'm anxiously awaiting that.

Just remember that I will always be in prayer for you. Everyone you think of me - I will be thinking of you. I'm behind you all the way, Hen. The Lord will never fail you or let you down.

'I thank my God everytime I remember you'

Phil 1:3.

'And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more + more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Christ Jesus - to the glory and praise of God.'

Phil 1:9-11.
