..But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee: Who knoweth not in all these that the hand of the Lord hath wrought this? Job 12:7, 10

For my best friend,

7/13/78 Thurs
Mtz

It was terrific to have you home today!!

I had a great day with you. I really appreciate you spending your day off with me - very thoughtful of you. Well, did anyone say anything at supper about you getting a letter? I'm glad you're proud to get mail from me. I was really happy to hear all about camping & the kids in your cabin. The Lord is really using you there. Tell Penny thank you for lending her car - I'm glad I could see you cause she was so thoughtful.

Henry, I thank the Lord for bringing us together. I'm very happy when I'm with you. You show me your love in such beautiful ways. Don't think that I'm worried about losing you - I know the Lord wants us to be together and so we will be. Our reunion today was beautiful. You are such an encouragement to me. I respect you a lot and am thankful for the respect that you show me. Henry, I'm happy that you've made so many new friends - I hope I can meet them sometime. I want them to be my friends, too. Friendship is such a neat thing & so important. You are a real true friend, babe.

Thank you for praying for me. Of all the many things you have to think about - you still think & pray for me - wow! We noticed that you handle all that responsibility you have up there so well - that really impresses me. I think in the past 2 weeks you've matured a lot in some ways (+ I don't mean you weren't mature before). I think I'll appreciate our love together much more now. Must go for lack of room
Am praying for you Wal
