Hi Hon, I just got home from C.O.H + I really, really, really, really miss you + love you so much and I feel so free when I'm with you. You're so easy to talk with + you're so athletic. I definitely do want you. I'm glad you made these baskets to say that you love me + will marry me - you're crazy you know it? Thanks for taking me to Kuchets Glen. It is beautiful there. You are beautiful!! I had a real good time with you today. I got sunburn on my face + was surprised about that!

Chet + I got home in 1 hr 20 minutes. I was doing 80 on the turnpike - that's as far as my car goes, but did it ever ride smooth. I got gas then, after I dropped Chet off at 7:30 and I got 18 miles per gallon. I've only been getting 14 so that's great. After I dropped Chet off, I was hungry so I stopped at Ice Cream World + bought - guess what. A butterscotch sundae. Well, I got halfway through + couldn't eat anymore. That's a nice nourishing supper, huh? Then, unfortunately the Quos on Hamilton - you know the home of finger lickin' chicken + worms at no extra cost - is still open. The Bureau of Health has + closed them down yet. Well at least we won't eat their chicken anymore. Well stick with Burger King.

You know my saddle I wore today (Dr. Scholl's) that I told you not to let me forget? - well, I forgot them. I'm sorry, but could you bring them home when you come? They're at the basketball court by the bench. Thank-you babe. You're really good to me!!

I'm wondering if you opened your present + letter yet? Hope you like it. It's just a small token to show my great love for you.

Hen, I just want you to know that if you want to go back there next summer, I'm behind you all the way. I hope I didn't sound negative about it. Sure, I miss you + hate being separated from you - but I want the Lord's will to be done - I won't interfere with that!

Being up there with you - I can really see that the Lord is using you + I see how you yield to him + allow him to use you. I really respect that and I see that you've gained respect from the kids up there. I also see how all the counselors really like you - that's really neat. Just shows you how ~~the~~ you get along with everyone. I love you - and I feel privileged to know you. I'm glad to hear about what the Lord taught you about prayer.

You are my love and my life, Henry. I love everything about you. You make me feel like a total person. You accept me as I am. I never feel you trying to change me - but instead I feel free and I want to give you so much. I want to please you and have you find some happiness in me + with me. I enjoy just being around you and watching you. I want to share everything I have with you. I love you - I know I say it + write it a lot but I mean it from the bottom of my heart + I can hardly express it - I love you.

I'll be praying for all those who are picked up at camp. I pray that you will stay healthy. The Lord will give you strength whenever you need it - even more than you need.

The Lord is my strength and my shield;
My heart trusts in Him, and I am helped;
Therefore my heart exults, and with my song I shall thank Him.' Psalm 28:7

I'm thankful that I can pray more intelligently now since I was up there + saw what's happening.

WAL.
