Henry,

So many things are going on in my head lately. I really want the Lord to make me the kind of person He wants me to be. I need to change in some areas of my life where I'm still controlling those areas. I can't change in my own power - I definitely need the Lord to help me to change.

One big area is my relationship with people. There are some people who I really have trouble communicating with. One of the people is Cindy. I know she's having a lot of trouble - I mean Patty was telling me tonight that she's really scared for Cindy - for what she'll do. Patty has such a great burden for Cindy and she's sacrificing a lot for Cindy - she really cares. I tried to talk with Cindy and it's just so hard for me - so inside I just give up and don't talk with her about any deep subjects. Patty, as I see her, is really mature & understanding. She's such a beautiful person. I love her a lot. Tonight at bible study there were just 4 of us. I brought my guitar and all we did was sing + pray for needs. It was really great.

It's not that I think I'm a really terrible person and hate myself - I just am getting to the point where I cannot stand my sins. I know it's good to feel like that and I just hate it when I see my pins and areas I'm lacking in. Please pray for me babe, and I can't wait to talk with you about this. I know you'll be such a great encouragement to me in this area. I want our relationship to be a real blessing + witness to others. I really pray that you could really share with me. I know you do + I love it so much. I love you so much.

Keith called me tonight and thought that was real nice of him to let me know you were better. Thank the Lord that you're feeling good. He shared with me about the real difference between high school and junior high age kids. I can imagine it's harder to get close to high school age cause they're on their own little groups. Keith also told me about Rich I think his who came to the Lord - the Lord really used you for that. That's terrific babe!! You're Friday night campfires sound really great. I couldn't get over that some people from this group are getting sick - I'll pray for that Hen. Keith says you'll go out to dinner on Monday night. Sounds real good.
Hen hope you have a real good time. eat a lot!!
(I know you will) ^{Ha} _{Ha}.

Hen I feel really close to you, just by praying for you. I love you and I want to be close to you. Can't wait to see you on Thursday, so I can talk instead of write.
Valerie
