Henry,

I thank my God in all my remembrance of you. always offering prayer with you in my every prayer for you: (Philippians 1:3+4)

Your letter I got today was so encouraging. I love when you write me cause you share what's on your heart and I love to hear how the Lord's working in your life. It's so great to see what the Lord does (how he answers prayer). It's just like you said about me having strength ~~to~~ run - cause you pray for that for me. Well, I pray that your classes & studies will go well and now you write that they do. Must be great to pray and sing before each class. Also, to have teachers who genuinely care for you. I've never had a teacher like that - at least it's very rare to find. That atmosphere sounds really nice. I'll continue to pray for the Holy Spirit to minister to you in your classes.

Thank you for sharing that about how God feels about our pride. I never realized how much God is against the proud. It makes you feel humbled just to think of how God feels about us at times. He is so perfect and we are so imperfect. That's why - when I'm walking close to God + seeing things to way he does - I hate my sins so much and want to change + conform to his image.

The schedule you made up is really good. Now I can pray more intelligently and I will pray you can stick to it. You did such a neat job on it. I'll always keep it. I love you.

Tonight I went to volleyball, which was pretty good. It gets dark so early. I met a guy who just graduated from Penn State (Main) - he didn't know Mark. We needed extra people - so he joined us. Afterwards I drove to your house. Had a nice talk with your Aunt and your mom about all kinds of stuff. I really love both of them. I wish I could make them see why your going to Bible College - they just still don't understand. But you are doing right - you're on the Lord's will, Hen. I brought you Shampoo to send out to you and I made out a list of things you wanted out there (pillow, mail, cassettes etc.) and I gave them the book Lord of the Flies. I didn't have enough money to get you any stamps so I told your mom and I told her what kind you want so she'll get them for you. They're going to send all that stuff this weekend. They didn't know about sending your ~~plates~~ though because they want them. Sorry! I also told your Aunt that I would enjoy helping out once they get the processor she seems so busy & bogged down with work. I will pray for her. Anyway, I'd enjoy helping - I'm interested and I'd learn a lot and I feel at home at your place and I'd be helping them. She said she'd keep me in mind for it. Hope she calls about it sometime.

Running is good - keep getting new blisters though my feet are a mess.

I'm gonna go now babe. Enjoyed your letter a lot. I get so excited when I see a letter came from you.
