I haven't seen you in a while yet I often imagine all your expressions

I haven't spoken to you recently but many times
I hear your thoughts

Good friends must not always be together
It is the feeling of oneness when distant that proves a lasting friendship

— Susan Polis Schutz

11/178 Babe, I got such a special letter from you yesterday. It was such an encouragement & blessing to me. Thanks. Sounds like you're doing good. I'll pray about your job searching. I'm sure the Lord will provide the right job for you.

I want you to know that I totally agree with what you said - when we give each other up to God, He gave us each other. I think we're real good together too. I know nothing like it - nothing to compare it to. I believe the Lord wants us together and He's that's O.K. with me. I looked up Paul & Tarsheena in the Bible encyclopedia but it says nothing about Paul being married or that you had to be married to be a member of it. It said that most of the men in the junked on were in the priestly family. Anyway - I had never even thought that Paul was married, but it would be interesting to find out.

I went to a few parties this weekend. I hadn't been out in a while and it felt good to go. Friday, I went to a taco party - everybody made their own. They also had refried beans + french rice but I wasn't brave enough to try them. It was fun I also went to a party ^(Thursday) with Cindy + Dave, I didn't know anyone else there, but it was fun meeting people + talking + just messin' around. It's interesting to meet people and find out their interests - you find that everybody has at least one thing in common. This guy was interested to know that I was a P.T.A. and he was showing me a lot of stuff - he traveled in the Orient and learned this kind of massage where you put pressure on different points on your body and it relieves them. He did some on me + it was pretty neat. Also, he showed me yoga exercises to do before you run. There was a guy there doing magic tricks - he was strange, but I enjoyed talking with him. I really like going places where I don't know anyone. Everyone was so friendly. The Lord has been showing me lately that people are so much more important than things (I knew it before, but didn't practice it). People are eternal and I need to have + build good relationships with people. I need to listen more and be more understanding + encouraging. Not just with my patients at work, but with everyone. I think that so many times, - I don't give people a chance to say what they think cause I'm too closed minded. Anyhow, I had an enjoyable weekend.

11/27/78 Babe, I just got home from bike riding. It's cold out there today - my hands were numb when I got home. I rode into visit with your family. They're neat. I love your mom's hair - she looks great! I think they all like me more than they used to - maybe I just grew on them. I looked at some pictures your Aunt printed. I thought they were beautiful, but she didn't. I guess that's the difference between a professional + a no-nothing. Anyhow I could have stayed all day - I feel so at home there. They said you went out to dinner with some guy from classic. That was nice of him to do that + your mom said he bought you a membership for the playboy club. My Hen - the playboy.

Did you get any snow there yet? I heard Michigan had a big blizzard. Wigfield's bought a house outside of Emmaus - 3 acres. It was an old log cabin + 3 beautiful on the inside - the walls are stone. They also got a barn with the deal. Hey isn't that neat - after Chris is done with school - they might move back here cause she can't find a job. Then I'll get to see them all the time! I can hardly believe it. Maybe I could even get a job at the hospital she'll be at! (depending on which one it is). Did you get to see them lately?

I enjoyed talking with you last night. I am concerned about your knee, babe. If you could only play V. Ball for 1/2 hr. - it must be bad - cause it's hard to keep you down - I know I try to keep you down, but sometimes I can't. Anyhow I like to see you when we wrestle. Please come home and wrestle with me babe. I miss your handling + fondling me really bad. I'm waitin' for ya babe to come get me.

Tomorrow I'll call Dr Weston's office and bug em til they give me a prescription. You're my babe + I'll take care of you. I'm gonna play racquetball tomorrow night. I haven't played in a while - you'd probably beat the pants off me (please do) (you know they only come off if I get you, anyway) HA!

Well, babe I hope I survive til I see you. You're right, it will be a time of much thanksgiving. You are my love + only you (it's as much as I can handle). I love you more everyday.

Valerie
