Hi

COME BACK
TO ME SOON
I MISS MY
BABE

SUGAR

Babe, Sunday nite
Seems like we're always leaving each other.
You think it would get easier each time + I'd be used to it - but really - it's so hard. I know you understand exactly how I feel. The weekend was great!
It was so very special and I'm looking forward to Christmas being just as special. I don't wanna even think of how hard it will be to let you go after that month with you. It was so heartbreaking to have us go opposite directions tonight.
It really broke me up to see you go, babe. Well, this coming week sure will be a bummer!

I really like your style, babe. You're so neat. I enjoy every moment we share. You are so precious. I fall more in love with you all the time - it's great! You are so nice looking. I could hardly take my eyes off of you. You're so gentle, babe - yet so manly - a real hunk (not a bulk). I think Dave is a really good guy. I'm praying you can find a good roommate like him for next year. I know the Lord will provide. He is good.

I'll never forget these 4 days we had together.
It was great to share our love for each other (I was so content just to sit and be next to you).
Also, thanks for listening to me. It really showed me something about your love for me - you really do care + want to share in my needs. I was definitely comforted. Enjoy your sack bologna, babe. I miss you real
