Ferry, I love your letters. Got 2 from you today - a ~~real~~ real special treat. Don't think you're sending me junk like each thing you send me. I think of them as added attractions - everything you send to me is special. You draw good maps, babe. I'm ready to go now.

The Sequoia trees are something we always wanted to see. It sounds great. So good to experience new things together. I think about it everyday - 5 months away babe, I really do wish I could come out there before your break, but it's not possible. The bottom concert sounds great. Bet you'll have a great time - a fit celebration nice of you to ask me to join you. Let me know if you need money to pay for it. I remember I heard bottom for the first time in your car - on your tape deck, 'More than a feeling' - that's it - but the feelings are pretty good too.

Gorgeous day for running. I ran 2½ miles. The birds were singing and it was 50° out. Really makes me feel like running. The air was so fresh. I would say that's my favorite time of my whole day - when I can get out and run. I guess cause there's no frustration involved. My mind is free and so is my body. Nobody can tell me what to do. I can be out in the air in the beautiful scenery. I just feel free from all cares. I can daydream about us or anything, try to figure something out in my mind or just let my mind go blank + just breathe. You couldn't believe how good my whole body feels afterward - I feel flexible + strong. ~~Sometimes my knees ache~~ afterward, but (that's my only problem). Enough said about it.

Just wanted to let you know, Mr Wigfield was in the hospital - something about his inner ear. He got real dizzy + nauseated and they thought at first it was a mild heart attack. But he's O.K. now.

Thurs 6:00 PM

I think about your body a lot. It's so beautiful - I miss looking at it and watching you move for excitement you're so in shape - I love watching your muscles flex as you play, every muscle tensed with the pleasure of it all. You're very pernicious and I love it. More when our bodies are together - so warm and soft and exciting. I can't wait till we ~~zip~~ our sleeping bags together.

Well, I'm so glad to read that your term paper is coming along good. Next year, I can type stuff for you. Does that typewriter you got work or do it need all new keys? I forgot. I thought I'd send you the results of my GBC.

My mom had been buggin' me to get it done and now it's normal so I don't have to take pills anymore. I'm thankful for that. So now you know you're getting a healthy one.

Babe, I hope I make you happy. I want to very much. I care so much for your happiness. I don't ever want to hinder your happiness - I hope I'm more of a help (than hindrance) to you in your school life. I know the Lord wants us together though so He'll bless it.

Last night I listened to the last MacArthur tape. That was so good, babe I learned a lot from it. Hebrews 13 means more to me now than ever before. It was great how he tied everything together like that. I was really blessed by listening. I was wondering if maybe that's what classes at Moody are like for you. I'm so glad you have the opportunity to be there and sit under that teaching. The Lord does bless us when we do His will. I learned from each tape though that I listened to so far (& got that sentence).

Tonight I'm going out to gym night for volleyball. Some nights we have better games than others but it's usually fun. Sometimes when I see the you playing basketball, I get sad that you're not there.

I miss watching your legs as you run around.

You know thinking about glorifying God and ~~the~~
that being our purpose on this earth, sometimes my days are worthless because I go through them so selfishly, not glorifying
God. I hope that we'll always have ~~someday~~ study times together, really getting into the Word.
I know that we'll grow closer together if we do.

I can't wait to share my all with you.

You are my precious love.
I shall never let you go.
Valerie

P.S Kevin ready ~~say~~ hi.
