Dear babe, love the card you sent. Very fitting. What you said about the springtime in the Sierra Nevada Mt and our new life together is so encouraging. I'm so excited about our life together and to see you excited about it too is so great. The more you write about it, the better it sounds and the more anxious I get. You have a way of really gettin' me up for things. There is a winter of loneliness for both of us - and because of it - summer will be even better. Thanks for the quotes about walking. I'm glad you feel like I do about it. Every day that I run or at least do something - I get more of other things done. Puts me in a better mood and I get a lot done like you said you did. Hope we always do lots together to keep in shape. I'd like to read your English paper when finished - sounds very interesting. I'm glad it's going good for you.

Today was unprofitable. It's raining all day, here I slept till 11:00. The more I think about it I think I got sick this weekend because I've been so busy the past few weeks - staying up late, and working a lot. The bird plowed me down though, yesterday and today. I was so busy I wasn't really gettin' into the word except by listening to the tapes. I feel fine now - just in time for work tomorrow. I'm just sitting here listening to albums.

Babe, I was wondering about what time you expect to get in on Sat March 17 - any idea when you leave on Friday? It's sorta bad that Missionary Conference is on the week that you're home, as I'll probably be expected to go to most of the meetings all week. At least I have days off and we could also go out after the conference is over at night.

Babe, about 0.0.4 - as of right now I do not feel lead at all to work up there this summer. I really feel like I should keep working till the end of July. Also, I want to have time to spend with you this summer - getting a lot of things ready. I just feel like I need that time with you here. I feel like July is a bad time to be away. Also, I want to spend time here with my family. I feel bad, cause from all you say & write, I should be there and I hate to go against anything you say. I just have no peace about being up there. I know I would be anxious about stuff getting done here and therefore not be as sensitive to the kids. Also that's such a big responsibility I don't know if I could handle it right now. Please understand I'd like to talk to you about it when you come home.

Babe, I'm glad you got to watch 'Happy Days' on Tuesday night. Sometimes I feel really bad for you that you don't get to do some of the things you would like. I hate to see you not get your way, but also, I admire your maturity in the matter though. It's something that would probably upset me, but to see your example really encourages me. You taught me a lot that way. Thank you.

I'm happy that your knee is doing good. I can just picture you playin' volleyball. I love watching you play and am looking forward to it. I love watching your sexy legs and your real end - really, that's exciting. I'll keep you in shape babe - keep ya movin'! I don't want for you ever to get bored or tired of me. I'll have to be unpredictable like you and keep you interested. You attract me, Babe. (magnet & steel).
