

Dear Henry, I'd like to hear about your life - school + volleyball and friends. I can't wait to share on it with you. Babe, whatever courses you take next year, I will support you. I realize your school stuff comes first and I won't put demands on you. The taking pictures sounds like a real good experience for me - and to have you as my ~~my~~ teacher - what more could I ask for? Did you find out for sure if you got the job. I would feel important if I could help you out with it. I'm so excited about next year. I know the Lord is preparing me for you and to move away from home and job. I'm ready to go! I'd like to see your volleyball tournament. I love to watch you play volleyball + basketball - to watch those legs and see you jumpin' around. Sometimes I don't think it's fair that everyone else gets to watch you but not me - but just wait, soon you won't be able to get rid of me + I can watch you all I please. Wish it was tomorrow.

It's weird you write about Columbus being a Christian. I had read a few years ago that he wasn't and he raped a lot of the Indians in America. But I'd rather believe he was a Christian. I don't even remember where I read it - maybe wasn't a valid source.

I have off 3 days now (Fri, Sat, Sun) I'm so glad. Yesterday I didn't feel like going in, it was so beautiful out. The birds were singing and it was like 60°. Today it rained a little. Work was really tense cause we're so busy and I had a headache + backache (I pulled it lifting) and I couldn't wait to get out. After work, I went in town a little bit. I got sealing wax (6 sticks of red), IV and a holder. It wasn't expensive. They had a big selection at Kilights. I hope the IV are good enough. After town I decided to run, even in the rain cause I felt my headache was from tension. So I ran only like 1 mile and I felt better. Then it came back later so I'm just trying to relax - I just have so much on my mind lately and I've been having bad dreams at night and they're sorta disturbing.

Audrey and Sharon are coming for the weekend. And graduates May 5 already. Hard to believe she's been there 4 years.

- I'm supposed to play racquetball with Simon Friday night at 12:00. I have a coupon for 1/2 hr free time + so does he so we'll play 2 hours (1 for free). It should be fun. He plays 3 days a week with a friend of his at the Y. I'll let ya know if he's any good. Cindy's having people over Sat. night at David's house ~~at the Y~~

I had a little bit of trouble with a patient with him being grumpy and really perverted (talking). I had him one day and then again the next day. Just really bothered me and I refused to treat him the second time. He kept rolling over when I was massaging his back. I told him there was nothing wrong with his back and he got really mad and I said he was gonna tell the Dr. It was just awful.

situation. I walked out and didn't say anything and I'm never going back in there again, I don't have to take that from people.

My dad got 5 new tires for the new volvo. He hit a pot hole and the tire blew out so he took it in to see if there was any guarantee. Turned out the tires were being recalled cause of some defect so he got 5 new ones! Worked out good. I'm going to take my snow tires off this weekend, for sure. About time!

' Let your fountain be blessed and rejoice in the wife of your youth

as a loving hind and a graceful doe

Let her breasts satisfy you at all times

Be exhilarated always with her love.'

Proverbs 5:18-19

Babe, the God wants us to enjoy each other in every way. I enjoy you and I'm fascinated with you. I love everything about you. And I know you'll be the best husband. I know, because God wants us together and he wants our best and you are the best for me. I find fulfillment + contentment in you. Love.
Valerie

P.S. Some guy running a marathon in New York got shot in the head (.22 caliber) at 10 miles + finished all 26 miles. He walked a little but hurt more so he ran.
P.S.S. Boston Marathon is this Monday. Wish I was in good enough shape to run it!
