

Hi!

4/19/79 I love you for who you are. I miss you very much. I had off today and a good day it was. It's warm and sunny here - a good day to be out. I dug some more garden today - I spent 2 hrs. doing that. It felt good to have the sun beating down on me.
Also, I picked up our paper + envelopes today. I called yesterday cause it had been awhile. She said 'Didn't you get your stock yet?'. She assumed I had picked it up. The day after I had called she said the guy was gonna cut the paper and then call me. He cut it, but then went on vacation so he never called. She was very apologetic about it, but there was really no problem. I like her.

It was $46.79 for everything (1% discount for paying cash).

The paper looks good. I'll send some to you. Do you think I should fold it or does Bill do that when he prints it? I thought of you when I went by Westinghouse on my way there. I laughed. I stopped for gas at an Exxon station near Walps. I still had like 1/4 tank left, but I saw the price for unleaded so I decided to get some - $73.5. That's the cheapest I've seen it anywhere. I wonder how some places can sell it cheaper than others. Even the Fisca station is $76.9.

I ran about 4 miles today. It was really nice out for running. Only thing wrong was my knees. But it seems the Lord always has something there to attract me. Today when I was running, a bunny ran right in front of me and into the field. I was wishing I was a rabbit cause they're so fast. They look my song."

really neat. Then I saw some deer + ducks. The clouds looked real cottony + wispy. Yesterday when I was running, I went by his flowery bush and the air was full of it's fragrance. It smelled so good + sweet. There was a neat tree, and the way the sun was shining on it, the flowers looked like diamonds sparkling. I can't even describe all the beauty I see everyday. and we take it all for granted. It surrounds us everywhere, but we don't even take the time to see it.
I know God wants us to enjoy His creation. I think everyone should get out + run or walk or whatever and take the time to look around + see the beauty. I can hardly come in from outside sometimes. Just to smell the air is so neat. The hospital is so stuffy sometimes I hate to go in. I think all hospitals + nursing homes should have sun porches or whatever they're called so patients could get some sun + fresh air - and people wouldn't have to be in ^{the hospital} as long Well, enough babbling. I'm glad you like my letters and you listen to me.

Last night I went to the Rock Palace. 'Steph' (? spelling) was the group. (ever hear them?) They play a lot of Jethro Tull It was great - they were really good. I danced a little and talked with a few people. Sometimes, I'd rather just sit by myself + listen to the music and watch people. I didn't even drink anything - I just wasn't in the mood.
I really just went cause I like the group. ~~RB~~

For I am confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you, will perfect it until the day of Christ Jesus'. Phil. 1:6

Babe, I probably take this verse out of context, but I ~~love~~ ~~love~~ ~~love~~ apply it to you, everytime I read this verse. He began a good work in you when you were obedient to Him when you went to Moody. and He will keep shaping you, directing and guiding you as you allow Him to use you. ~~God~~ I see you as being very open to His direction and I admire that faith - that He will show you what He has for you (+me) Seeing your trusting spirit, it causes me to trust more and totally rely on Him. Sometimes I get very anxious about things and instead of taking it to God - I think about it constantly - but you're an example to me. By your calmness and coolness about things I can see that you have the inner peace of trusting - cause you know God will take care of it. I'm learning that I must give over everything to Him. God has taught me so much through seeing your life and I'm really thankful. I love you so much Henry and I'm so happy about going ~~to~~ to Chicago with you and living with you. I need your love and I'm glad I do cause it's good to be loved by you. You're a beautiful person Hen I love to be near you and enjoy you. And because I love you so very much, I want very badly to be the best wife cause I got the best husband - you Israel Henry Kalb III.
