

Dear Ken,
I got your post card today. Sounds like you're having fun in the sun. Sounds great! Congratulations ~~on~~ ^{1st} place in V-ball. I'm proud of you and I can just imagine those spikes you knocked down their throats. Wish I could've seen you play. We'll be starting V-ball at AOH soon you probably won't even want to play with us cause we ~~think~~ and you're used to the best. The bike riding sounds neat. ~~By~~ ^{along} that phone. Is that near the school? I'm glad you're having a good time playing around. It's a good feeling when all your work's caught up and you can relax. The weather's been great here too - up in the high 70's. It's really hot when I run. I've been having really good times running. Last Sunday, I met this guy while I was running and we've been running together everyday since. I like it because he's faster than I am (yesterday) so it makes me pick up speed and after 5 days of it, I think I'm getting used to it. He's really good though, he never seems to get out of breath. We've been playing frisbee after we run, too and he also let me ride his motorcycle. I think it's a Kawasaki something (I don't know the numbers) I like riding on it though. It's a pretty big bike. Yesterday, after work, I ran down to Len's + ^{7:00 PM} back before running at the park. They had oatmeal pop on sale so I decided to run down and get it. I didn't enjoy running in the city at all, you don't get the fresh air, and all you smell is exhaust - people hang out their windows and there's so much traffic and sometimes you just can't go ahead on a red light. I was glad to get to the park on the soft green grass with the fragrance of the flower trees and the creek flowing + sparkling in the sun.

Last night I went to church, the prophecy speaker talked on Israel + Russia in the end times. from Ezekiel 38 + 39. It was interesting - he had slides to go with it.

Tomorrow, after running Carolyn and I are going to play tennis over at Muhlenberg College. God tennis weather tennis is fun, but I think it's rather boring a frisbee and run after it + I'd definitely parkrun. I don't feel like I'm getting as much exercise when I play tennis. We've been running around the park at the track, then through Muhlenberg park by the ~~lake~~ lake there and up the hill to Muhlenberg Campus and around there and back.

I got my gown fitted on Monday night. All that has to be done is take the waist in, and shorten the sleeves a little. The length is perfect. I'm excited about seeing it again. It's so neat to try it on.

Babe, I'll be good to see you again - just a little over 3 weeks. It's been going so fast for me. I'm keeping real busy cause I love being outside doing stuff. Only like 3 mos. till the wedding, too! It's getting closer so fast. But I'm confident that you will be a great husband. God wants us to be together, Ken and that's fine with me. I pray each day that He would prepare us to be together that we would start off good with Him as the center. I asked Him to take care of so many things for our wedding and He has not failed me. Everyday I see so many answers to my prayers - through your letters and by things coming together for the wedding. So far, I can pay for a lot of the things needed for it and still save money besides and I feel that's a real help from the Lord. I just can't thank Him enough for what He's done. I see His perfect timing in our coming together that it couldn't have been sooner than now - I know I didn't see that before but now I do and I feel thankful to you also that you had the wisdom to know when it was right.

Eddie our volunteer I told you about, is having a picnic for all of us I think June 19 (a Sunday). She lives out by Terry Hill sports complex. She's such a neat lady - I can't wait till you meet her - her husband's really neat too, but she wanted to have this picnic till you came home. Sounds like I'm already planning on you going, but really I'm not - you can decide, but it's like you to meet her. She's made a big impression on me by her attitude and the way she treats people. She's sensitive to other people and very compassionate. She does some crazy things, too I mean like hang gliding and all.

Kenya, I love so many things about you. Thinking about them all makes me long for you. Aside from being so physically attracted to you, I'm attracted to you because you're so warm + understanding of me. You take such good care of me. You never push me into decisions, but your advice and guidance helps me decide cause in the wisdom God has given you, you know what I need to hear to motivate me to do something + you encourage me that way by teaching me. You don't just say "do this", but respect me enough to let me decide for myself. I don't know that I explained that right, but I mean it. You also attract me cause you're such a physical person, an aggressor + that really attracts me. You're so aesthetic minded, you're not passive you have that confidence that causes people to respect you cause you're not just a talker - but you think things out + then act. Babe, how can I even put into words, all the beautiful traits I admire in you. I just know that I love you - I love the person you are and that includes everything. You're my babe.

Through Him then, let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that give thanks to His name!
