

Sun 5/13

Henry, I haven't seen you for so long and I hope you remember that I love you so very much. I'm looking forward to your homecoming. I can't wait to hug you and kiss you and have you near me. We've been apart for almost a year now (including camp) and I need you near me. I'm so excited about being with you again. I'm gonna lay you down next to me and kiss you all over and touch you all over and enjoy your warmth. You're so sweet. I love talking to you and hearing about your life and your dreams for our future.

It's a rainy weekend and not much to do. I've been giving my ankle a rest - it's been 2 days I haven't run. It's good it's raining or I probably be out running when, really, I know I should be resting. It feels a little better now. I'll run tomorrow though. Sherry + David will leave soon probably. It's good to be with them. Sherry's pretty sure she'll be able to sing. It's an encouragement to see them both excited about our wedding.

Chet was in church today. He's also excited about our wedding. He says as soon as he gets up to COH, he's gonna make sure he has off Aug 4. He's neat - he says he's anxious to see you again. I sorta feel bad about you not going to camp this year cause of all the people up there - Chet, Sheryl, Keith + Jeff. You & have such a good time and I don't want to stop you. But, I like your decision cause I get to see you. I'll try to make it up to you and see that you have a fun summer. I think it'll be good.

Yesterday, I was up helping my dad at the shop and cottage. He said some gup were up about your car.

they want to make a donkey out of it. That it like to see. Well, at least you won't have trouble selling your car if you want to.

Thanks for what you wrote to me about work. I appreciate your prayers and wisdom in comforting
me. God surely gave you the right words to say to me.
I too, am thankful that we can build one another up
and bear each other's burdens.

I love PSALM 121. He, the Lord is your help for your needs. I'm confident, as I pray, that He will sustain you through your last days of school. He made heaven and earth - He's all powerful so He can surely provide for us.

And I am praying for you, babe

* He will keep your soul.
The Lord will guard your going out and your coming in, from this time forth and forever.
