Dear Henry

This is sorta sad letter - cause it's the last one. We've grown so much through our letters. Thanks Hen, so much, for your encouragement to me - it kept me going. I love you Hen, I respect you so much for sacrificing a lot to go where the Lord wanted you - and still does want you - only this time with me. Babe I'll be a good companion - I'm so in love with you - I just can't wait to be with you. I miss your caress and your kiss. Soon.

I've been keeping up with getting up early and running. I've been doing 5 miles. It's a great time to run and watch the sun come up.

Yesterday I had the day off. I finished the garden digging! I washed my car and mowed grass and stuff. It was a good day. I was all alone most of the day and it was peaceful.

Hen, I like whatever tent you like. The last one you sent (Sierra Designs) is neat.

Babe, I'll sleep anywhere with you. I've been thinking about our camping out a lot lately. I look forward to it more all the time. To be all alone with you, doing whatever we feel like doing. It'll probably be the best thing I've ever experienced.

I went bike riding the other night and had a great ride. I thought of us going bike touring and I would love that. There's so much to see Ken, so much to do. There's no way we could be a normal couple. There's too many neat things to do together. I want to always be as much in love with you as I am right now. and I know I will be - cause you're the greatest and neatest person. Everything you do is so neat and the way you do it. You do give me much pleasure - just being with you and ever more. I love experiencing you. Love. Just wait till you get home, babe. Just wait. You are my whole life, Ken and I'm glad.

I love you and it won't ever stop
This is just the beginning,
Gal
