

Valerie,

I covenant before God and these people to always love you and be in fellowship with our Lord that I may encourage and guide our family as we follow Him together. As your husband I promise to always be by your side through every hardship and to share every joy.